

The Irish Railroad Workers Museum

A Project of the Railroad Historic District Corporation

918-920 Lemmon Street
Baltimore, MD 21223
(410) 669-8154
www.irishshrine.org

A museum with exhibits depicting the Irish immigration experience in Baltimore, particularly as families who lived in the neighborhood and worked at the B&O Railroad.

918 Lemmon Street

A house museum, furnished as a typical working class home of the period. Utensils, beds and other implements of everyday life are displayed. It tells the story of the Feeley family who lived here in the 1880's.

920 Lemmon Street

Tour includes a screening of the video documentary: From Famine to Fortitude, The Irish Experience in Baltimore, a railroad workers display, St. Peter the Apostle Church history and a recreated pub.

FREE ADMISSION

Open Saturday 11 am - 2 pm
or By Appointment

One block across Pratt Street from the B&O Railroad Museum

SECOND SATURDAYS at the MUSEUM 11 am - 2 pm

Join us for a variety of free Irish-inspired programs

March 12 • Irish Dancing

A demonstration of Irish Step Dancing

April 9 • An Architectural Tour

with Mary Ellen Hayward

May 14 • Images of Ireland

Photos by Denny Lynch

June 11 • A Look Back

Reminisce with Lemmon Street residents

July 9 • Arabber's Day

A Baltimore tradition

August • No Program

September 10 • Laundry Day

Scrub, rinse, wring and hang laundry

October 8 • Irish Halloween Traditions

Did you know Halloween began in Ireland?

November 12 • Festival

Enjoy the Maryland Irish Festival at the State Fairgrounds in Timonium

December 10 • Christmas with the Feeleys

Irish Christmas traditions

Groups welcome. To schedule a tour call (410) 669-8154.

FREE DVD

From Famine To Fortitude

The Irish Experience in Baltimore

The Irish Railroad Workers Museum

Must present coupon • One DVD per party

Expires 12.31.11